DEI-LY LIGHT

DECEMBER 2018 NEWSLETTER

Dear Gloria Dei family,

I love Christmas, but I really love Advent too, the four week season of preparation. I love to sing “Joy to the World”, especially at candlelight services, but I really love singing “O, Come, O, Come, Emmanuel.” There’s something about its haunting, minor key, and words which speak to me. It sings of darkness and light, the poles of life. It’s not sugary, it’s not superficial. There’s a depth which comes from longing prayer in the midst of hurt. I hope we can all celebrate Advent deeply, meeting the Savior in new ways.

To that end, Advent will all be about Arts & Faith this year. Each Sunday, we’ll focus on a wonderful piece of art (with video commentary) reflecting the scripture of the day. Of course there’ll be the usual happenings - lighting the Advent candles, carols, decorations, special musical offerings, and Sunday school pageant.

A special thanks to our musicians and choirs. This is a busy month for musicians and they bring inspiration through their “perspiration” to us. Our Sanctuary Choir will be offering a “Lessons and Carols” Service on Sunday, December 16 at morning services. It will be an uplifting change.

Finally, our Christmas Eve Service times will be 4pm, 5:30pm, and 11pm. All the services will be candlelight. Childcare offered at the two early services. Communion will be celebrated at the 11pm service.

The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. And I am the foremost of sinners. (1 Timothy 1:15)

God’s peace,

O Come, O Come

Without a doubt, my favorite Advent hymn is "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel." We sing it every Sunday during the four weeks of Advent because it perfectly captures the feeling of the season, which is one of preparation and waiting and longing. For many of us, the season of Advent is less a time of calm waiting and more a time when we are caught up in a whirlwind of buying gifts, decorating the tree and a non-stop succession of programs and parties. However, it was not that way for the monks of the Middle Ages, when this hymn was written. In the monastery, Advent was a time of meditation on serious subjects: death, judgment, heaven and hell. And the month in which we think of Christ's first coming was used by monks to reflect on His second coming.

The writer of this hymn, who is unknown, uses many descriptive terms for Jesus, including, of course, "Emmanuel," which means "God with us." The writer also calls Jesus the "branch of Jesse," which comes from Isaiah 11. Jesse was the father of David, and Jesus, the Messiah, comes from the house of David. In another verse, Jesus is called "Dayspring," which has roots in Luke 1:78-79 when the priest Zacharias, upon hearing of Christ's birth, says that Christ will provide light to those in darkness. Jesus is also described in this beautiful hymn as "the key of David," a reference to Isaiah 22:22. The newborn king holds the key to the heavenly kingdom. Jesus is further named the "Lord of might," perhaps alluding to the fact that Jesus is God, the Almighty, the one who first gave the Law at Mount Sinai. (Exodus 19:16). In another verse, Jesus is called the "Wisdom from on high" or Adonai. This is a reminder that the source of all wisdom comes only through God and that Christ's teachings fulfill all of the prophecies of the Old Testament. Finally, Jesus is referred to as the "Desire of nations," which comes from Haggai 2:7. Jesus will draw all people together from all nations and make one kingdom of peace.

"O Come, O Come, Emmanuel" is a hymn filled with meaning. As we continue through the Advent season, may we celebrate all of the ways that Jesus is present in our lives and in our world.

SHELLI PARAJECKAS, PRESCHOOL DIRECTOR

PRESCHOOL

(All things related to the Gloria Dei Lutheran Preschool)

Gloria Dei is a place where children play and pray!

Our students just wrapped up Thanksgiving where they learned to recognize the many gifts God gives them daily. Christmas is a special time for a child. Although our students associate Christmas with Santa and gifts, they also know Christmas is about celebrating the birth of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

There is so much excitement and anticipation for Christmas day. Now we focus on praise and celebration for the gift of Jesus. They are reminded of this every day through stories, songs, carols, and prayer. As we prepare for a pageant, our preschoolers are learning that Jesus is the reason for the season. May your Christmas preparations and celebrations remind you of your blessings, and that we give God the glory.

(FYI - The Preschool's annual Christmas pageant will take place on Sunday, December... 5pm.)

"For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. He will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace." Isaiah 9:6

UPCOMING L&L OPPORTUNITIES IN 2019:

DEI-LY SERVICE

(All things related to service, ministry, helping others, compassion, caring, loving, serving “the least of these”, etc.)

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY - This ministry invites people of all ages to join their group. They meet the first Saturday of the month at 9am in Knudson Hall. Their next meeting is December 1st. If you know of someone in need of a shawl or would like more information, call Peggy Johnson at 949-363-8714.

THE QUILTING GROUP meets the 4th Saturday each month at 9:30am, in Knudson Hall. However, in December they will not be meeting. Their next quilting group will occur January 26, 2019. SERRA'S PANTRY - This local volunteer opportunity in San Juan Capistrano, provides food to those in need. Interested Gloria Dei members serve at Serra's Pantry every third Saturday of the month at 8:30am. December 15th is the next volunteer opportunity. Contact Paul Dubow at 949-248-8865, if interested.

COLUMBARIUM COMMITTEE - Gloria Dei has submitted an application to the City of Dana Point, requesting permission to install columbarium niches in the Outdoor Chapel and Contemplation Garden area. Members of the Columbarium Committee have met with City planning staff, and it is anticipated that the application will be scheduled for a public hearing later this year.

A growing number of local churches provide or plan to provide columbarium niches on their grounds. People increasingly choose a local columbarium because of a strong desire to be laid to rest on the grounds of the church they loved and served. Proximity makes it convenient for loved ones to visit and remain connected. The cost of columbarium interment is also considerably less than the cost of burial at a cemetery.

Please keep this effort in your prayers and look for another update soon!

LOS ANGELITOS ORPHANAGE MINISTRY - 2019 Trip dates to be announced soon

We had a fabulous trip to Los Angelitos on Saturday November 3rd and gave the children with beanie caps knitted by a Gloria Dei member:

Following are some direct quotes from some of the missionaries on this visit:

- "This was our first trip and an inspiring experience having talked to other people that had gone."
"One of my favorite things about visiting Los Angelitos is our arrival. The kids come up and hug us right away! It's such a great feeling to give and receive hugs."
- "My first-time trip to Los Angelitos was wonderful. The mission site is impressive, with a beautiful building, first-class kitchen and room to expand."
- "It was truly a blessing."
- "The trip to the orphanage was inspirational."
- "The children of course, were welcoming and engaging, with lots of smiling faces and hugs. I felt welcome and a part of the community."
- "It's great to have a local mission (Mexico) so near where there is a personal, one-to-one relationship with Gloria Dei members."
- "As we left at the border crossing it was heartbreaking to see the children outside our van begging and living in a different world than the kids at the orphanage."

If you can't attend a trip to Los Angelitos, but want to help, we have suggestions. Please contact David & Susan Warneke 203-952-5657 or 510-967-3211.

The continuing and new students in our program are all of very high quality and commitment and faith and are most appreciative of your continued support.

Blessings on your journey,
Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary
