DEI-LY LIGHT

APRIL 2020 NEWSLETTER

Dear Gloria Dei family,

I've written this newsletter article three times now - things are changing that fast! Coronavirus and our response... I don't have any answers yet in terms of what we will be doing at Gloria Dei. We have been closed for two weeks - worship, preschool, programs, etc.- will it be longer? Yes.

Bishop Eaton recently wrote about Martin Luther's letter - "Whether One May Flee From a Deadly Plague" and he emphasized the duty to care for the neighbor, the responsibility of government to protect and provide services..., a caution about recklessness, and the importance of science, medicine and common sense. Luther also encouraged, 'God has created medicines and has provided us with intelligence to guard and take care of the body.

Sounds like wise, common sense advice for any time. Thanks to everyone who is caring for others in wonderful ways!

We are now "Live Streaming" worship - go to our website mygloriadei.org and you will be directed to our youtube channel. You can follow live worship from any device, anywhere. If you miss it, there will be a recording of the service there also. And of course, to help us, you can always give electronically by going to our website: mygloriadei.org/donate and make your contribution through that secure source.

Holy Week. "Luther also reminded his people and us that we should trust God's faithfulness and promises, particularly the promise of eternal life." That's the great hope of all life, and the life to come! Thank God for Jesus' work during this holy time.

Gratefully yours,

Not Your Typical Easter

A lot has changed since the Gloria Dei March newsletter came out. And I don't think the changes are over. I am so grateful for all of the ways that this congregation is staying connected throughout all of the difficulties of virtual worship, not to mention the difficulties that each and every person is undergoing personally, whether it's having children at home that would normally be at school or financial concerns, canceled trips or weddings, feeling isolated and alone, or being sick and scared. We are all in this together, but at the same time, we are all a little bit more alone than we used to be, at least physically.

One of the hardest things I have been dealing with is how to teach and preach the message of the Gospel when there is no one nearby to hear it. Notwithstanding the amazing technology of Zoom and Google meetings and virtual-everything, it's not the same. It's simply not the same. And yet, the message of the Gospel is the same. It has never and will never change. It is the one constant. We have hope because Jesus died and was raised from the dead, conquering sin and defeating death itself – for us!

As we get ready to head into Holy Week and Easter in a way we have never celebrated Holy Week or Easter before, it might be tempting to feel disappointed or even depressed. Now is probably not the time to mention that I bought some new shoes for Easter (and a new dress and new matching outfits for the kids, Chris, and Gabe) that were pretty outlandishly stylish. And yet I'm mentioning it anyway because it's okay to be disappointed, even about what might be considered little things or silly things or frivolous things (not the shoes, obviously, but other silly or frivolous things). At the same time, Holy Week and Easter are actually the best times to remember that we are people who believe in hope because of the resurrection. We are resurrection people! And because of that, we can focus on the good news of the Bible and remember all the stories of light and hope and love that Jesus created and that Jesus inspired. The darkness from Good Friday until Sunday morning was thick and black and seemingly impenetrable. But when that Sunday morning came, the light shone through. With God, the light will always come through.

Let us continue to support one another through whatever trying times we might be experiencing. Call, text, email one another (and if you need a call, text, or email from me, please let me know). Most importantly, let us love one another. Blessings on your Holy Week and on your Easter.

DEI-LY WORSHIP

(All things related to worship, music, altar guild, choirs, singing, praise, etc.)

Our music program is thriving! We have many things planned for 2020--many ways to participate. This month you'll hear choir, strings, oboe, and recorders in different arrangements. Come join us! Contact Kathy at music@mygloriadei.org.

- Host Families will NOT be needed for the California Lutheran Collegiate Choir and String Ensemble, as the concert has been cancelled at Gloria Dei.
- Bell Choir is ready to go with special Easter music and small ensemble pieces when we are able to resume rehearsals. We love to ring and look forward to making a joyful noise again soon!
- Sanctuary Choir was gifted with a special arrangement of "The King of Love My Shepherd Is" by Fred Johnson. It is a beautiful piece featuring choir, piano, and oboe. We premiered it on March 15th (watch our warm up on Facebook) with the talented Mallory Bacon on oboe. We can't wait to reprise it for Good Shepherd Sunday in May.
- Recorder Ensemble we will begin working on some 17th century songs arranged specially for woodwinds when we resume. We'll also take a look at some Irish and Scottish fiddle tunes as well as hymns for Easter and Pentecost.
- Brass Ensemble begins soon! All levels of experience are welcome. See Pastor David for details.
- Questions? Email Kathy music@mygloriadei.org

SHELLI PARAJECKAS, PRESCHOOL DIRECTOR

PRESCHOOL

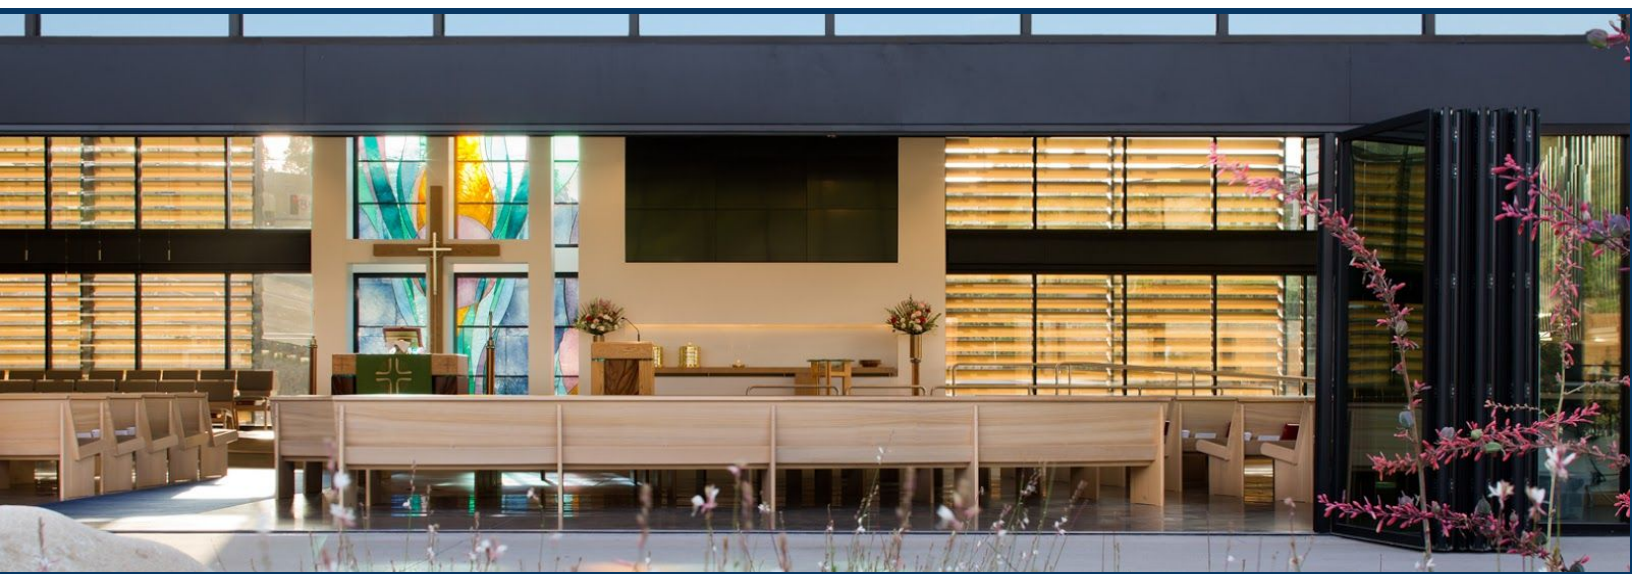

Gloria Dei is a place where children play and pray!

The preschool has been closed since March 16th. The campus is so quiet, however if it means our students and their families are staying healthy, I'm fine with the "quiet".

Now more than ever, we as a school and a church, need to exude hope. Leaning on our faith is what God calls us to do, and we know He is by our side every moment. Isaiah 41:10 says, "So do not fear, I am with you, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you. I will uphold you with my right hand."

Anticipating our Easter holiday will be from home, and our attendance for this service will be from our screens, I pray this Easter season will be especially impactful. Be intentional with the traditions of Gloria Dei, be deeply rooted in prayer for our country, our world, our family, and our friends. God is lifting us up, He is giving us strength, so let's spread the hope He gives us, so that we may all meet again soon at Gloria Dei. Our first service back will surely be a celebratory reunion. Happiest Easter to all!

To contact Shelli Parajekas go to preschooldirector@mygloriadei.org.

LOS ANGELITOS ORPHANAGE MINISTRY

Our remaining mission trips in 2020 will be May 23, August 22 and December 5. Stay tuned for COVID-19 updates regarding future trips.

We had a near perfect day on our recent visit to the orphanage in Tijuana. The fact that it was cold and rainy was actually a great, well timed blessing. The weather was a real blessing for several reasons:

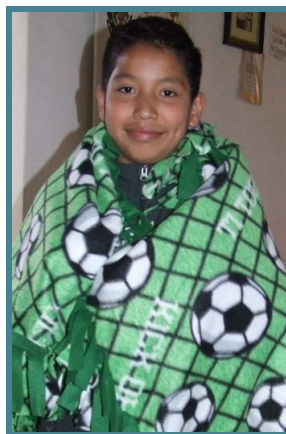

- The rain kept us all in-doors, so we had a lot of close, quality time with the children. We played games and made crafts and were interacting in a very comfortable and relaxed atmosphere.
- Phil Delgado brought a couple of dozen hand-made, custom ceramic bowls (each one unique). Others made a huge batch of warm chili-con-carne. The kids loved the chili on a cold day and they loved their custom made bowls. The kids kept the bowls and probably use them daily. Lunch was served with salad and fruit and chips, cookies and more.
- Stephanie Stoner sent a dozen of her beautiful hand-made, super warm and cute blankets. Each one a unique creation. The kids went nuts over the blankets. And since it was a cold day and the heater at the orphanage was broken (it was super cold inside) the kids were all wrapped up and cuddling with the missionaries on the couch, on the chairs, and on the floor.

We had a near perfect day. Thanks be to God.

CoronaVirus update @ Los Angelitos (March 25, 2020) Everyone is well. No one has contacted the virus. Schools are closed and everyone is hunkering down at home. It is hard for all those children to practice social distancing - they live too close to one another. Pray for them. If one gets sick - they all will. To learn more about our orphanage ministry, contact David (203-952-5657) or Susan Warneke (510-967-3211).

If you would like to leave a lasting gift to your church, please consider doing so.

THE COLUMBARIUM - Reservations and payments continue through Lent. So far, 34 niches have been purchased and locations reserved.

Besides niches for cremation, there are also Memorial Plaques that can be purchased - they would be inscribed with the name of a loved one. This is much less of an expense, but will be beautiful in the Memorial Garden. Pick up a brochure at the Welcome Table. The Columbarium will be located in the upper canyon area, the Memorial Garden. Each niche (space) will hold two urns. For more information, please see our website: myloriadei.org/columbarium.

Eickhof Columbarium company was out to measure the area. They are now planning to construct the Columbarium in the Outdoor Chapel in May. They do beautiful work. To find out more about them and their projects around the country: <https://eickhofcolumbaria.com>.
