DEI-LY LIGHT

NOVEMBER 2021 NEWSLETTER

Dear Gloria Dei family,

November kicks off with All Saints' Sunday (November 7). There are some people who come into our lives and through them we experience God's grace. Who is that person, that saint for you?

At all services, we'll toll the bells after reading the names of those who have finished their race on earth, giving thanks to God for them, and reminding ourselves that they are fully alive with Christ. We will also have a very brief service of remembrance at the Columbarium for those who are interred there (9:30am).

Like many of you, I think of my parents. The reason I'm a Christian is because they showed me that following Jesus was something real and simply the best way to journey in this life. It all goes back to the crucified One.

Like many of you, I think of friends. I'm thinking of a family who pays for funerals at CHOC for people who cannot afford to honor their infant child. I'm thinking of a couple who volunteer their time every week at a substance abuse ward of a local hospital. I'm thinking of a doctor who takes his vacation time and goes to Haiti for several weeks each year (Not sure how that will work out this year). I'm thinking of people who always seem to have your back, to listen, and to pray. It all goes back to the crucified One.

What saint introduced you to this big, outlandish, mysterious, forgiving crucified One?

Yours in Christ,

Pastor David R. Mattson

P.S. Everyone loves Taco Tuesdays! Join us for the first "TACO 'BOUT THRIVING (or at least surviving) THE HOLIDAYS - November 16, 5:30pm. Taco carts. Fun. All ages. $10/person and children are free. Sign-up!

PASTOR VERONICA

We've been reading through 1 Thessalonians in the Wednesday Women's Bible Study. It's amazing how much depth there is to explore in only five chapters! At one of our sessions, we invited our favorite saints to be with us as a "great cloud of witnesses" (Hebrews 12:1) as we studied the first letter to the church in Thessaloniki.

I have often thought about the saints that have gone before us—our spiritual ancestors. These saints are the loved ones who shared their faith with us. They are also the historical and Biblical figures whose stories inspire us in our walk of faith. I love the annual tradition of All Saints Day, when we celebrate God's promise of resurrection and eternal life for all who have died in Christ. It gives me tremendous hope to know that we are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses as we seek to follow God's will for us. We are never alone.

The next time we profess our faith using the words of the Apostles' Creed, you may notice that we profess belief in communion of the saints. Another way of expressing this is that, in Jesus, we are united with all of God's faithful, living and dead, past, present, and future.

There's a profound beauty in the fact that each one of us has the opportunity to be spiritual ancestors as well. With each prayer we pray, each encouraging word we share, and each life we touch with mercy and justice in the name of Jesus, we continue a legacy that spans centuries, generations, and continents.

PRESCHOOL

Gloria Dei is a place where children play and pray!

Each day is a gift and I welcome it with gratitude. I'm thankful for my family, my friends, my work family, my church family, and the laughter of children; I'm just thankful.

This month our students will create and share a meal in celebration of Thanksgiving. November is when our students will begin to lead prayer with their classmates, expressing their gratitude and giving thanks to God. This is the most precious thing to hear and a reminder for us to not be afraid to pray out loud or simply say, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

To contact Shelli Parajeckas email her at: preschool@mygloriadei.org.
