DEI-LY LIGHT

JULY/AUGUST 2023 NEWSLETTER

Dear Gloria Dei family,

As a kid, each summer my parents loaded up the green Chevy station wagon ("The Green Latrine"), put the Coleman canvas tent on top, all five kids would pile in (seat belts were optional at that time), and we would drive across the country. We camped a lot, but also descended on relatives.

One of the things I loved to do (and still love) is to look at a paper map, study our route. Much of the time it was on the "red" highways - large interstates, but often, we would wander off on to the "blue" highways. Those were two lane roads, less traveled, more interesting, but slower.

I hope you take a blue highway view of things this summer. That is, take a new route, look at something a second time, try something new, meet a stranger, listen to some music that's not your go-to genre, and rest. That's my hope. Kimberly and I will be gone until mid-August taking a breather.

If you need pastoral care - Dana Becker and Michelle Lum will be holding things together. Simply call the office and Carol Weinhardt will direct things to the right person.

Here's a good Psalm for traveling the blue highways, or traveling through life for that matter, Psalm 121:8:

The Lord will watch your going out and your coming From this time forth and forevermore.

Gratefully yours,

Pastor David R. Mattson

P.S. Thanks to all those who helped with our Raise the Roof celebration. We've raised over $91,647.65 towards roof repair. That's wonderful news! New roofs will commence the week of July 10.

MICHELLE LUM, Minister of Arts and Outreach

Our latest art event this summer was a plein air painting day at Pines Park (Thanks to everyone who came, what a fun time that was!). It was great fun to paint with everyone. If you were there, you know that it was not exactly the picturesque scene you might have imagined. When we got there at 10am, it was cloudy and overcast. I think a few of us took some liberties to brighten up our paintings, but if you were to make it true to reality then a lot of the paintings would have been gray. About a half hour before our event ended though, the sun came out and the water was vibrant and blue. It was a stunning scene, and would have made for a beautiful painting! But for us it was a bit ironic because by then most of us were finishing up our paintings. Oh well, next time!

Plein air painting is fun but if you do it seriously then you are very dependent on the weather. It's the kind of thing you plan and show up, but also need flexibility to go wherever the weather takes you. I think life is often like that too, we make plans and show up, but then sometimes God wants to take us somewhere unexpected. With whatever you have planned these next few summer months, don't forget to give yourself some flexibility to see where God might take you!

PRESCHOOL

Gloria Dei is a place where children play and pray!

School is out for the summer so it's quiet around campus. It's also the perfect time to get a lot of repairs done, clean, organize, and plan for another great year in preschool. Students will return to preschool on August 15th.

"Children need the freedom and time to play. Play is not a luxury; play is a necessity." ~Kay Redfield Jamison

DANEEN PYSZ, DEACON INTERN

Can you believe this is my sixth and final month in my internship at Christ Lutheran and Our Savior's? When I look back at the beginning, it felt like such a steep mountain to climb. I really believe many of you were praying for me, and I appreciated all those who inquired as to how my internship was progressing. Thank you, for your prayers and encouragement. As I look back on the six months, I have experienced many areas of growth in pastoral care, preaching, bible studies, VBS, working with the unsheltered, and managing my time between two churches. Take a moment and think back on the last six months of your life. What did you accomplish for yourself, for others, for God? If you're like me, your life gets consumed with so much that we sometimes forget to

"Be still and know that I am God." (Psalm 46).

The next few months for me, will be hurry up and wait. By the end of July, I will submit nine extensive forms to the Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary faculty panel. In September, I will meet with them and they will review the forms, and give approval for the next step. The approval and forms are then sent to the Pacifica Synod Candidacy Committee for review and approval. I will meet with the Candidacy Committee November 30, 2023. Then the waiting game begins as to when I will be called for a Deacon position. Once I accept the call, I will be ordained. "Be still..." Your continued prayers for God's plans for me is encouraging and humbling. May you have a blessed summer, and experience the stillness of God.

Blessings,
Daneen Pysz, Deacon Intern

LOS ANGELITOS ORPHANAGE MINISTRY - It's a Family Affair

The Los Angelitos Orphanage is committed to keeping families united. It is not uncommon to find multiple siblings in need of a safe and loving home. They do everything possible to keep these families together. In their already unstable lives, keeping siblings united adds a much-needed thread of permanence, not only for these family members, but also for the other orphan residents.

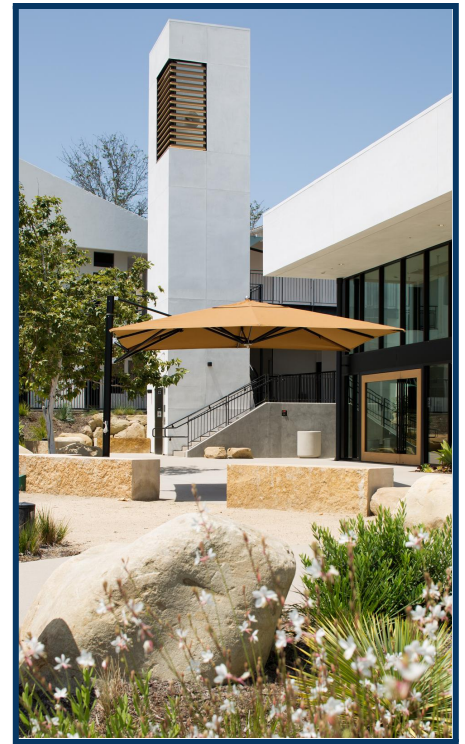

According to Los Angelitos Foundation board member Francesca Messori, there are currently several families of children living at the orphanage: one family of nine-children, another of five- children, another of three-children and even a set of twins. Their ages range from two to eighteen.

It is a blessing, an honor and a privilege for Gloria Dei to help support this vital ministry. God Bless all of you for your continued support, for your time, for your talents and your treasure.

Our next visit is scheduled for Saturday, September 23, 2023.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTRY - Thanks to those who are involved in meeting with shut-ins, homebound, hospitalized and bringing the Lord's Supper. Thanks to Student Pastor Dana and Daneen Pysz for leading this ministry. If you are interested in helping in this area, please call the office at 949-493-3414.
