DEI-LY LIGHT

SEPTEMBER 2023 NEWSLETTER

Dear Gloria Dei family,

"Get on the Bus" RALLY SUNDAY - September 10. We celebrate the kick off of music programs, Sunday school, youth ministry, and much more. We'll also kick off our 2023-2024 reading challenge - "THE BIBLE YEAR." Grab your guide at the bus (patio) and join in.

To encourage this all church event, on Thursdays at 6:30pm, beginning September 21, there will be a weekly Bible study on the readings. A light dinner will be served and it will take place in Bankson Hall.

The first study on September 21, I will talk about "how to" read/study the Bible. As Lutheran Christians, we read everything in the Bible through the prism of the cross. What does that mean?

- Those troubling passages in Scripture point out our need for God's grace. So those difficult or what we might see as antiquated notions, actually tell us not only about the time in which they were written, but can again, point out all of humanity's need for Jesus.
- As Lutheran Christians, we believe in growing our whole lives long. Martin Luther, a professor at Wittenberg University, kept revising his thinking about scripture his whole life long.
- And the amazing thing, the more you study, new ideas and new understandings appear, because we believe the Spirit continues to work through these ancient words to bring life and purpose.
- Finally, we read because through the word we have the opportunity to meet The Word, Jesus.

Gratefully yours,

Pastor David R. Mattson

P.S. Thanks to all those who helped with our Raise the Roof celebration. We've raised over $104,044.15 towards roof repair. That's wonderful news! The new roofs look amazing.

MICHELLE LUM, Minister of Arts and Outreach

Where is God leading you? I recently went to a kintsugi training and in the days leading up to it, was not feeling excited about it. The hassle of packing and planning out the trip was not much fun. However the experience ended up being much more than I thought it would be. It was a space for learning kintsugi and a reunion with friends made two years ago. The best part of the training—for me at least—was learning the traditional art form of kintsugi. Learning how to mix urushi and how to apply the gold was inspiring in a way that surprised me. I felt energized imagining all the ways I could use this to make new artworks. I did not know what awaited me at this training, but I am so glad God brought me there.

Retrospectively it isn't at all surprising that this training really fed my soul, but I had forgotten about all of these wonderful things until I was there. It's scary how easy it is to miss things that we really need, whether it be a time of rest, time with God, or just some simple encouragement. The wonderful thing about being a child of God is that he takes us where we need to be. I wouldn't have traveled at all this summer except for work and this training. It was not only a rich time of fellowship, but it also allowed me to take a break from my regular routine. Where might God be leading you?

Gloria Dei Art Ministry

- Our monthly art gatherings will start up again on October 13th at 6:30pm.
- On September 30, 1pm, we are doing a watercolor class with Dan Long! Come learn about watercolor techniques as we each create our own paintings. No experience necessary.

SEMINARY INTERN DANA BECKER

This summer has been full of fun things! I started in Minnesota, taking a worship class at Luther Seminary in St. Paul - here's proof I go to school! Then, Darla and I came back to Vacation Bible School, our high school rafting trip, a baptism, and lots of preaching this summer.

This fall, I look forward to continuing classes, getting closer to graduation with my Masters of Divinity in May 2024. This semester, one of my classes includes a trip to Krakow, Poland for the Lutheran World Federation 13th Assembly in September. I'm excited to learn about worship in different cultures and bring some inspiration back for us.

PRESCHOOL

Gloria Dei is a place where children play and pray!

School has been in session for a few weeks now. The kiddos are settling in and adjusting to their new routines. We are excited for a year filled with learning and laughing.

This month we will celebrate our preschool grandparents by hosting a morning with coffee and muffins, a tour of the classrooms, and end with a joyful chapel time. This is a very sweet event because our preschoolers love to show off their classroom and the art they've done so far this school year.

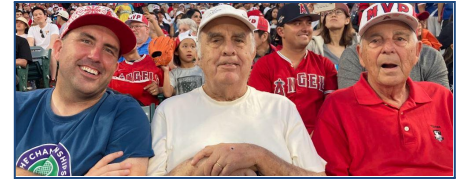

Gloria Dei IS the place where children play and pray!

First school day smiles...
