DEI-LY LIGHT

NOVEMBER 2023 NEWSLETTER

Dear Gloria Dei family,

All Saints' Sunday is November 5. We will toll the bells in celebration of those who have finished their journey on earth. If you haven't submitted a name to be mentioned, it's not too late.

Who is a saint? For Lutheran Christians, following the example of the New Testament, saints are simply those who have been baptized. I think of family who have died and are with God. Maybe I'll light a candle at the church and thank God for them. That would be a very "All Saint" sort of thing to do. Speaking of family:

My Grandpa Mattson immigrated from Sweden, just prior to WWI. He felt if he joined the U.S. Army, it would be a quicker path to citizenship and so off he went to fight in the trenches of France. During his time there, he had a vision of Saint Birgitta, "the patron saint of Sweden" who said he would survive and preach the good news of Jesus. After recovering from the Spanish flu, he returned to the U.S. and became a pastor.

My recollection of him was of a serious man (trench warfare can do that), who loved to garden, travel, sing, and read. As kids, Grandpa and Grandma Mattson's home seemed very quiet. We were required not only to pray before the meal, but to sit and have a devotion after the meal. That was torture for a squirmy kid.

Today, I'm thankful for him, and so many others, including people at Gloria Dei who have encouraged me to "run the race with perseverance..." (Phil. 3:14) Who do you think of when you hear the word saint?

Gratefully yours,

Pastor David R. Mattson

P.S. Pray for peace and justice in the Middle East. To that end, our offering on Thanksgiving Eve worship will go to World Hunger and Lutheran Disaster Response. We will also have a food collection for F.A.M.

MICHELLE LUM, Minister of Arts and Outreach

As we get closer to the end of the year, I was thinking about the word, "fellowship." You might not hear it spoken much in your day to day life, but you definitely will hear it at church. Why do we have fun events throughout the year? For fellowship! We value community and these events are where we get to fellowship: where we build relationships with each other and celebrate life together. Sometimes it's in the silliest of things too, like doing the chicken dance or scrunching cellophane together for an art project. Beautiful friendships can form in even the most mundane of tasks.

I don't know who you are fellowshiping with this season, maybe it's family or friends. If you don't have a community to fellowship with, I invite you to join us! We have a lot of events coming up and we would love to celebrate this season with you.

ASSISTANT MINISTER DANA BECKER

In September I had the opportunity to attend the Lutheran World Federation's Thirteenth Assembly in Krakow, Poland. It counted as a class credit for seminary, but was so much more than that! Then, I shared some about the experience with you in October. If you missed that sharing time, the bottom line is that it was INCREDIBLE. I came home with some inspiration and hope for ministry and perspective about the service of the Lutheran church in the world.

The LWF is an organization of 150 Lutheran churches around the world. They gather for an assembly every 7 years to celebrate global ministry and set dreams about the future of the church for the next 7. We heard from great speakers and preachers on the theme "One Body, One Spirit, One Hope". We worshiped together in different languages and styles. And we shared communion with the church across the globe. Thank you to the council and congregation for supporting me on this adventure!

I have another big step in my ministry journey coming up this month. At the end of November, I will go before a panel for my "Approval" interview for ordination. In writing essays and preparing sermons and materials for the interview, I would greatly appreciate your prayers for this day. Gloria Dei has played an important role in my journey, and I am grateful for all your support in the last years!

THE BIG NEWS

THANKS to all those who have already turned in their Pledge Cards and Time and Talent Sheets (online too)! You make this ministry go!

The Sanctuary Choir will sing and an offering for World Hunger and Lutheran Disaster Response will be taken. Non-perishable food items will also be collected for F.A.M. We pause to "Praise God from whom all blessings flow..."

DEI-LY WORSHIP

(All things related to worship, music, choirs, singing, praise, altar guild, etc.)

November might be my favorite month. I love Thanksgiving. It's a casual, cozy time to celebrate with friends, family, and community before the whirlwind of Advent and Christmas. I look forward to the cornucopia on the altar every year. I usually take a photo—although I have no idea what I'll do with it—I guess I'm just trying to preserve that moment, that warm fuzzy feeling! Part of being "Easter People" is being "Thanksgiving People". This month, join the music ministry in giving thanks and praise. Sing it loud!

Sanctuary Choir - For the month of November, Psalm 100 will be our focus. Giving thanks, celebrating, praising His holy name:

Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth.

Serve the LORD with gladness;

come into his presence with singing. Know that the LORD is God. It is he who made us, and we are his;

We are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise. Give thanks to him; bless his name.

For the LORD is good; his steadfast love endures forever and his faithfulness to all generations.

Psalm 100 (NRSV)

We welcome new singers and are especially needing tenor and bass this year. Sing with us! Thursdays 7:30-8:30pm.

Handbell Choir - our group is preparing special music for November 12th services. We have also begun preparing carols using both bells and chimes for Advent. Lots of fun effects to play, and lots of fun social time in rehearsals. We have room for a few more ringers. Note reading skills are helpful for jumping into this ensemble. Contact Kathy for more info! Thursdays 6:30-7:30.

Questions? Email Kathy Person: music@mygloriadei.org.

PRESCHOOL

Gloria Dei is a place where children play and pray!

Our school year seems to be flying by. With Thanksgiving on our heels:

- The preschoolers are learning about the parts of pumpkins and the many things you can do with each part.
- They are watching our season turn slowly from summer to Fall with all the leaves changing and falling onto the playground.
- They are learning by teacher examples, of being thankful and doing acts of kindness.
- They will work together to prepare parts of their meal at our Annual Thanksgiving Feast later this month.
- They will also experience the “giving” in Thanksgiving by providing gifts for those who are in need.

I truly love this season and I strive to be a better example to my students that every day is Thanksgiving and “Thanksliving”. May you find it in yourself to live each day with love and gratitude.
