DEI-LY LIGHT

FEBRUARY 2024 NEWSLETTER

Dear Gloria Dei family,

In John's Gospel, Philip invites a cynical Nathanael to "come and see" - no long debate, no long argument about theology, just "come and see." And then Nathanael encounters Jesus and discovers: Grace changes everything!

On February 4, we will have our annual meeting/aloha luncheon. Everyone's invited for a great meal (donation) and members will also vote on a new council. All the budgets, business... is so that we can say, "come and see." Here's a bit of what I'll be reporting on regarding plans 2024:

- Future Planning: The new council will be arranging a Planning Team to dream about the future; Staffing: We will be in transition (aren't we always!). Our 2024 budget reflects those realities and the bringing on of "soon to be" Deacon Daneen Pysz and more; Building Repair: Replace the main monument sign, repair staff bathroom...; Worship/Arts: We owe much to our Music Director Kathy Person and leadership. We hope to build on that this coming year. And in this area, Michelle Lum has provided new avenues for people to plug in and "come and see"; Gen2Gen: In the spring, we think about passing on the faith to the next generation - Cinco de Magico! I'll be thanking our wonderful staff and volunteers!

This summer is my 24th year leading Gloria Dei! It's an honor to work with you to say "come and see."

Gratefully yours,

Pastor David R. Mattson

P.S. My thanks to Carol Weinhardt for her great work - between extra Christmas services, new members, annual reports, time & talent - this is a busy time and she does things with good grace.

P.P.S. Ash Wednesday is Valentine's Day - How does that happen?! But I think it's perfect - ash in the sign of the cross is a much better symbol of love - real, hardy, unending love - than a candy heart. "Come and see!"

MICHELLE LUM, Minister of Arts and Outreach

Have you heard of the 10,000 hour rule? They say you can master any skill if you work at it for 10,000 hours. I don't know if that's entirely true, but I appreciate the sentiment: if you want to be good at something, you have to put in the time. It's not enough to just wish for it, or even to try it out a couple of times. It takes discipline and practice. Ask any good musician and they'll recount the hours they spent in practice rooms. At my school, one of the most common suggestions you hear from professors is to "get to work."

Our spiritual life isn't a "skill," but the same sentiment applies here too. If you want your spiritual life to grow and thrive, it will take work. What kind of work? The same kind you put into any relationship, getting to know God more, spending time with Him, talking to Him and hearing God talk to you. As we enter Lent, a season of preparation, what can you do to nurture your spiritual life? Some ideas to get the juices running: pick a scripture to read everyday, schedule a time to pray daily, memorize a few verses, or join a Bible study. I pray that this Lenten season you find yourself even closer to God than before. And as my professors say: get to work!

Gloria Dei Art Ministry

ASSISTANT MINISTER DANA BECKER

The Lenten Season starts early this year, with Ash Wednesday on Valentine's Day. In our faith journeys, Lent offers us an opportunity to reflect on the sacrifice Jesus made for us on the cross. For 40 days, from Ash Wednesday to Easter, Christians will give up something in their lives, add something, or focus on a spiritual practice.

This Lent, I am also in a seminary class about the Christian Mystics. Their work teaches and leads us to the embodiment of Christ, using practices and habits that reveal Christ in impactful ways. This Lent, I am choosing to focus on prayer. Like some mystics I am learning about, I hope to embody prayer in ways that go beyond words, such as movement, art, and meditation. I hope to share more from my class throughout this season.

The other defining factor of the Lent season is every Lutheran's favorite: food. Our times of fellowship and worship during Wednesday night soup suppers are fun and relaxing! Come join us throughout the 40 days.

LOS ANGELITOS ORPHANAGE MINISTRY - Many people ask themselves; “Shall I join a Los Angelitos trip?” While others may ask: “I can’t go, but I want to support the Orphanage – how do I help?”

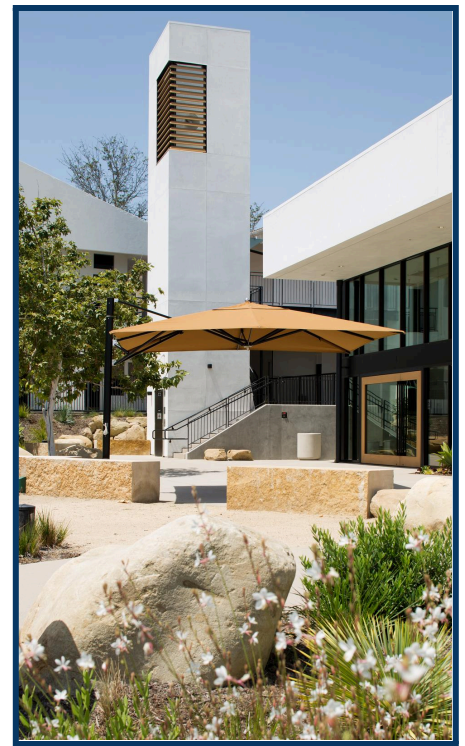

Joining a mission trip is fun and rewarding and provides an opportunity to learn about the orphanage. Yet while the children enjoy our company, it is the missionaries that are most blessed. It is we missionaries that really benefit the most from our visits, not the children.

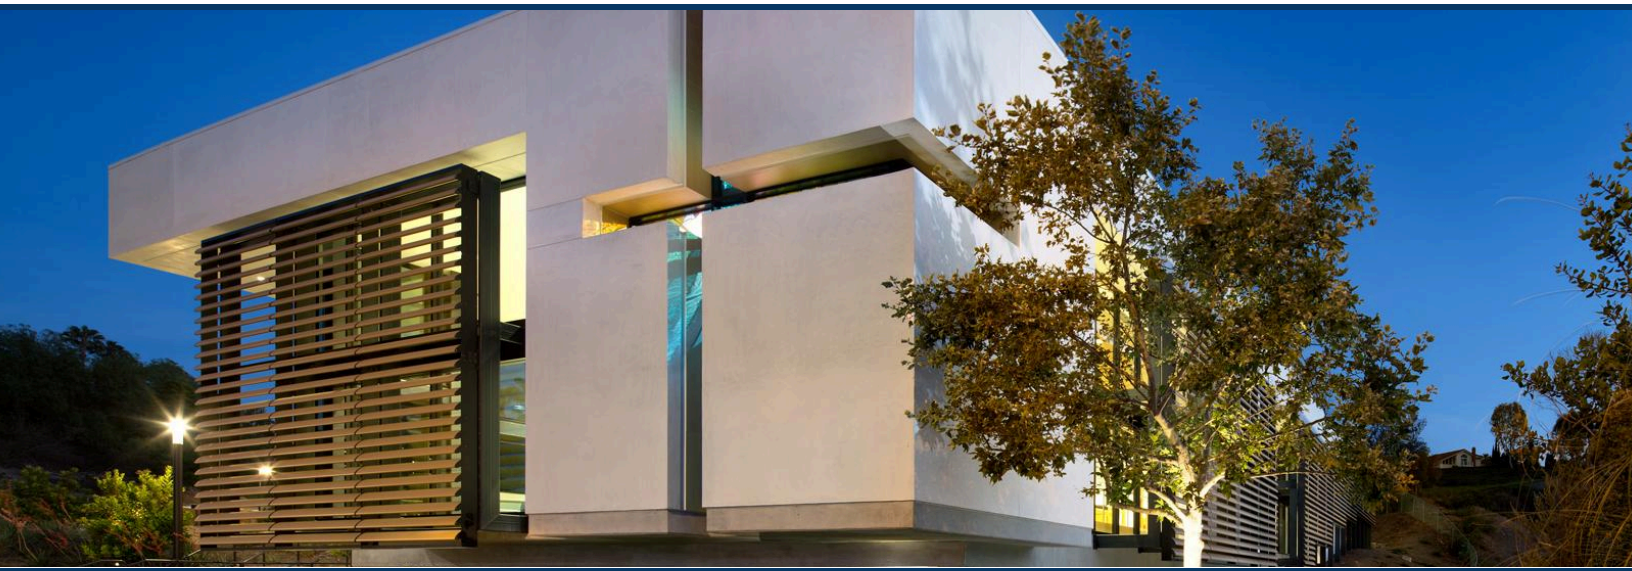

So then, if I can’t go, or even if I do go, how do I best help these orphans?

1. PRAY – Pray for the children. Pray for their caregivers, pray for the orphan, and pray for those individuals and organizations that support the orphanage.
2. GIVE FINANCIALLY – It is really expensive to raise 20 or 30 kids. A portion your offerings at Gloria goes toward Los Angelitos, and it helps. But they need much more. You can also give directly to Los Angelitos.
3. SHARE the GOSPEL - All believers are called to share the gospel with non-Christians around us. In doing so, we join the work of missionaries around the world in reaching others for Christ. Tell your neighbors, friends, work colleagues and others about our work with Los Angelitos. It is a great way to share your faith with others.
4. SUPPORT Los Angelitos Trips – You can support our trips donating food, laundry soap, personal care items and more. Needs vary by trip so just ask. Other ways to support is by picking up the rental van and other chores.

If you are unable to join us on our next mission trip, you can help in other ways. Contact Susan or David Warneke or the church office for details.

EUCHARISTIC MINISTRY - Thanks to those who are involved in meeting with shut-ins, homebound, hospitalized and bringing the Lord's Supper and/or conversations and prayer. Thanks to Assistant Minister Dana Becker and Daneen Pysz for leading this ministry. If you are interested in helping in this area, please call the office at 949-493-3414.
